The April 8, 2014 meeting of the Friends of the O'Fallon Library was called to order at 5:00 p.m. by president Ann Sullivan. Seven members were present. Minutes of the November 19, 2013 meeting were provided and approved.

The treasurer's report was presented by treasurer Harriet Baker. She reported that $2,895.04 was earned at the mini-Spring book sales ($1,430.45 in February and $1,464.59 in March). Amazon sales netted $317.86. Balance in Friends account stands at $2,057.31 as of March 30, 2014. A check $1500 was presented to Molly Scanlan at the meeting. Treasurer's report is attached.

Director Molly Scanlan thanked the Friends for the donation. She also announced the set-up of a permanent home for the sale of our used books. The books are now on shelves versus carts and in an area with seating available for browsers. A couch and end tables are on order which will make the area even more inviting.

Laurie Beebe said that plans for the "Blow-Out" Book Sale (May 8-12) are progressing well. Set-up will start at noon on May 7th. Schools and charities will come in at 4pm on Monday to pick-up books for their organizations. Tear-down will be on Tuesday, the 13th. Publicity in various newspapers, church newsletters, bulletin boards, etc. has been taken care of by Laurie with help from Molly. Ann Sullivan will put the book sale signs out in their usual locations. The Garden Club will sell plants outside the library (plants remaining from their May 3rd plant sale.)

Georgia Coco will send out mailers for dues reminders.

Meeting adjourned at 5:25 p.m. The next meeting will be August 12, 2014.
