Librarian’s Report  In and out arrows and dividing lines at the entrances/exits were painted on the parking lot. The work to install the acoustical panels will begin the first part of December. There was a discussion concerning the disabled veteran’s property tax exemptions and the impact it makes on the city and the library. Our tax levy will be flat for next fiscal year.

Six of the staff members at the library have been trained to administer Narcan. There was an available organization (Chestnut Mental Health) that provides the Narcan and the training.

Friends of the Library  H. Baker reported on the success of the latest book sales and the books that were sold on Amazon. Harriet presented Molly with a check in the amount of $9000.
Book Discussion Group  The library book club is reading Amity and Prosperity, by Eliza Griswald. The group meets the fourth Monday of the month at 7:00 p.m. at the library. The Books and Brew book club is reading Dead Letters, by Caite Dolan. There will be no meeting in December for either book club.

Public Comment  None

Topics for Future Consideration  Further discussion concerning possibility of staff uniforms and/or new dress code.

Unfinished Business  The thermostat in the children’s activity room needs to be relocated. Evaluations for Molly are due by the next board meeting, December 10, 2018. They can be turned in at the library any time before that date.

New Business  The Per Capita Grant should be finished for next month’s meeting. The time for the December 10th board meeting is changed to 6pm due to Dennis and Mary Grimmer’s annual library board Christmas party scheduled for that evening. The library will be closed all day Christmas Eve and Christmas Day. H. Baker made a motion to hire Andrea Banuelos as circulation clerk. The motion was seconded by N. Clark. All ayes. Motion carried.

Adjournment  There being no further business, the meeting was adjourned at 7:44 p.m.

Respectfully Submitted,

Shirley Seipp
Recording Secretary
